

THE GREATER PRINCETON YOUTH ORCHESTRA

announces

The 2022-2023 GPYO Brass Scholarship

The Greater Princeton Youth Orchestra is awarding ten GPYO scholarships to brass players who place into the Symphonic Orchestra during our 2022 August Auditions. The GPYO Brass Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship, based on a student's playing abilities at the time of audition. Students must place into the Symphonic Orchestra to receive the scholarship. Recipients are expected to maintain excellent attendance, musical preparation and display role model behavior at GPYO rehearsals throughout the year.

The GPYO Brass Scholarship is an award of $150, discounted from the student's tuition. This is a one-year scholarship, currently only being offered during the 2022-2023 season. Scholarship recipients are required to join GPYO for the full season, starting in September 2022.

To apply: Sign up to audition by August 15 & submit audition video by August 22. All auditioning brass players will automatically be considered for the GPYO Brass Scholarship.

For audition information visit: www.gpyo.org/auditions.

Questions? Email ops@gpyo.org.